FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 186[illegible]

England and France

The London Times says very pointedly that "the Americans neither apprehend the strain [illegible] of England, nor understand the [illegible] with which a war would be prosecuted." The English Nation seems to be contemplating the possibility of a war with America, and to have suddenly awakened from their intense enjoyment of the imbroglio into which our States have been plunged, for [illegible] years past, to realize that inspite of the great drain upon our resources caused by civil strife, we are able to force a war upon England, and of course upon France at the same time, for Napoleon who has all the time been willing to take the initiative in the recognition of the Confederacy, having been detained from so doing by the hesitancy of her neighbor across the Channel, would rejoice to aid in the humiliation of the United States should the opportunity offer. We do not apprehend that war will soon commence. We really have enough upon our hands for the present to secure the ground we have won, to finish up the work on hand and complete the capture of Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston and Mobile.

The tendency of the times seems to favor an early peace. What we receive from the rebel Capital is only the gnashing of teeth that precedes despair, the ravings of faction that promise, more than anything else, the speedy dissolution of the rebellion. Of course the Dictator is there supreme. The distant States may be longing for peace and a sentiment favoring that end may prevail at last in North Carolina and Georgia and these States may establish an entente cordiale with the Federal Government before Jeff Davis [illegible] to appreciate his destiny, or becomes conscious that his cause is past hope. If there is peace soon coming, if the tired armies that have for four years fought with such obstinacy are ready to try a parade rest in good earnest, why then the two great Powers across the Atlantic had better be satisfied that their hands are clean and guiltless toward us. Perhaps it is a touch of conscience that makes the Times so conscious, and the thought of war may bring these assertions to its columns.

There is one aspect of affairs that may prove interesting to contemplate, even should it never be put to proof. The Confederacy has never had the support it expected to receive from European powers. English capital has supplied a few war vessels, for which, however, it has managed to secure payment in cash. Blockade runners have been built for no earthly object save to make fortunes for enterprising individuals of the Mother Isle; and the grand satisfaction of recognition so often and so earnestly prayed for, has been denied them by either Great Britain or France. Slavery, which was the idol of the seceded States, has been the bugbear that scared away recognition. Under those circumstances, suppose peace even contemplated, and an armistice declared, what unction could be better laid to the souls of Southern men, than a promise of war with England and France? What better band of Union could be devised than to turn the bayonets that have been leveled towards home-hearts too long, in unison, against a foreign foe? How Maximilian would "skedaddle" out of Mexican Territory! How English provinces would be wrested from English care, and how fast English and French commerce would disappear from the face of the seas. We do not predict anything of the kind, even in case our fondest hopes are realized. We do not hope that any kind of war will displace peace when it is once vouchsafed us, but we remember the Fenian Brotherhood, we do not forget that at most, we owe the English nation nothing, however much we may appreciate individuals; and if we are to have war with any foreign power, or any number of them, we feel that if the ban of home strife is once removed, all the powers that are jealous of American nationality combined would soon find out that we have cultivated the art of war to some purpose before such conflict ended. Cursed as we now are even, with the horrors of the present strife, we sincerely believe that a foreign war would call out thousands who never dreamed of taking the field, that men and money would float to the national support, and that without neglecting the present conflict we could satisfy any assailants that they have more to lose than we.

A WORD TO THE VOLUNTEERS.—Some of the Oregon Volunteers have been foolish enough to trade off their State or County bounties for a mere song to sordid speculators—men possessed of money and acting the part of a worse than Shylock, to make something considerable off of the volunteer, who needs them [illegible] himself and should save it to have means when his term of service expires, to assist him in life. Every bounty offered by State or County is just as good, well managed, as gold, and it is the extreme of folly for young men to throw them away. The bounties have been given at great expense to State and County treasuries for the only purpose of inducing worthy men to enlist—not to fatten a set of hungry land sharks, who care nothing who loses so that they can gain. By saving their bounties, all the enlisted men can do well in the service, but unless they do so they throw away golden opportunities that may not return.

The Mountaineer of Wednesday furnishes the information relative to the robbery said to have been lately perpetrated at [illegible] Creek on the stage route between Walla Walla and the Dalles. Two men named R[illegible] and Hilfer were intrusted with a large amount of gold dust belonging to parties at the Dalles and Portland. On their arrival at the Dalles they reported that they had been robbed [illegible]. They were, however, [illegible] suspected of having stolen the money, and in consequence were arrested and placed under bails of $2,500 and $2,000 respectively, to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court and answer to the charge.

SLEIGHING AT THE DALLES.—The Mountaineer yesterday says there was excellent sleighing at the Dalles the day before [illegible] the weather has been sufficiently warm to clear the river of ice. It is probable that the snow will not remain at the Dalles much longer.

RECRUITING IN JOSEPHINE.—At a meeting held at Kirbyville an association was formed and committees appointed to raise $[illegible]00 for bounties to induce volunteering to fill the quota of that county.

THE CYCLONE IN INDIA—[illegible] THOUSAND LIVES LOST—DREADFUL [illegible].—[illegible] from the country districts in India which were less [illegible] than [illegible] the loss of life, which [illegible] probably have perished. A Calcutta paper says:

Every day brings [illegible] tunes. [illegible] and the country between [illegible] has been [illegible] the storm waves. Great exertions are made by the Calcutta [illegible] for the survivors [illegible]. A steamer had been chartered [illegible] to the [illegible] district.

The following statement of the destruction of life and landed property in the [illegible] the sub-divisions [illegible] the deputy Commissioner [illegible] Natives killed [illegible] wounded [illegible] destroyed [illegible] $9,112. Europeans killed [illegible] wounded [illegible] houses damaged [illegible] destroyed [illegible].

The [illegible] Darjeeling on the 10th [illegible] Calcutta [illegible] establishment [illegible] for the [illegible] which are scattered all over the [illegible] southern part of Calcutta [illegible] for the [illegible] the area of the [illegible] river [illegible].

Of the thirty-two inland steamers and flats at Calcutta nineteen are complete wrecks, and the remaining thirteen [illegible] injured. Of the thirty-[illegible] steamers, ten are completely destroyed, two very seriously injured, and the [illegible] at work [illegible]. Such a destruction of shipping property we believe has never been equaled.

GEN. SHERMAN'S GUIDE.—Gen. Sherman had with him in his Georgia campaign one of the best and most reliable scouts [illegible] in the southwest—an old man, a native of [illegible], a wealthy planter and slave owner at that. It would be [illegible] to [illegible] he is well known to all who were in the [illegible] visiting headquarters a year ago. When the war broke out he denounced the [illegible] leaders, and in consequence of his [illegible] sentiments was compelled to leave his home [illegible] between two days. His neighbors missed him and suspecting rightly that he had gone off to the Yankees, they told well [illegible] that he was obliged to hide in the mountains in the northern part of the State for several weeks. They have since organized all kinds of raids for the purpose of capturing him. After being in the service some time he volunteered his services to General Buell, but that officer declined much Southern "guidance." Next he tendered his services as volunteer aid to General Rosecrans, to whom he was of great service in the campaign terminating at Chattanooga. He has been with Gen. Sherman since last June. There is not a highway or by-way in the interior of Georgia with which he is unacquainted, and scarcely a town or village in which he is not known.

He used to say that with a brigade of cavalry he could find cotton and niggers enough within a hundred miles of Atlanta to liquidate the National debt. He is one of the few rich men of the South who have remained faithful to the Union cause when they knew that to do so was to lose their property, their homes and their comfort. On his present trip he carries with him a black list of those who took pleasure in persecuting him four years ago. He thinks he will make it more than even with them before he gets through.

"THE HASCHISH EATERS."—A terrible affair has just come to light in Paris which is causing a great deal of sensation. A celebrated physician desirous of ascertaining and minutely recording the effects of the haschish or Indian hemp upon the human mind, induced three young men to lock themselves up in a room with him and partake of it. The servants were all sent away, but after waiting twenty four hours and the inmates not coming forth, the doors were demolished when a horrible sight presented itself within.

On the floor lay the doctor insensible and bleeding profusely from a wound in his head. One of the young men was extended beside him groaning in agony, his left arm and leg both broken by the fall of the chandelier, which by some extraordinary accident, had slipped from its chain and lay scattered in fragments all over the carpet. Another of the experimentalizers was seated on the floor close beside the door, grasping one of the brass candelabras from the mantel piece, with which it was evident the victim had been wounded—he was found to have become a raving maniac, while the third was lying quietly beneath the table—in a stupor, from which no medical skill has yet been able to arouse him.

The doctor whose wound is not serious and whose insensibility proceeded from the loss of blood, gives a vague, confused account of the scene as yet. The revelations made in the pages of his pocket book are said to be extraordinary, and to have caused the greatest excitement among the medical men of Paris.

THE PRESIDENT ON PRACTICAL RELIGION.—A good illustration of the practical and common sense view which President Lincoln takes of what ever comes under his observation, was afforded the other day in his reply to the application of two Tennessee ladies for the release of their husbands, confined as prisoners of war on Johnson's Island, Ohio. These ladies had been put off from day to day, and one of them continually reiterated as argument in favor of her husband, that he was a religious man. They were finally successful in their suit, and when the President agreed to the release he said to the lady referred to: "You say that your husband is a religious man, tell him, when you see him, that I say that I am not much of a judge of religion, but that in my opinion the religion that sets men to rebel and fight against their Government because as they think that Government does not sufficiently help some men to eat their bread in the sweat of other men's faces, is not the sort of religion upon which people can get to heaven." This is one of the shortest and best political sermons ever preached in Washington, I guess.—Wash. Cor. Union.

TENNESSEE WOMEN.—The editor of the Knoxville Whig says:

We have seen some suffering women here forced on our streets within the last ten days begging for something for themselves and children to eat, while their husbands are in the Federal army facing rebel bullets. At the same time we have seen certain she devils up in the streets of the female persuasion, dressed in silk, who scorn to walk under the American flag, and walk around it to avoid contamination. We have given many a poor Union woman five and ten dollars, and if we had the fortune to sustain us, not one of them in all the length and breadth of East Tennessee should want for anything. But what can a few individuals do among such an army of sufferers?

We regret to learn that Gen. Lane is in a feeble condition of health. The extraordinary heat of last summer he thinks has broken his [illegible] health. When we saw him some weeks ago he was suffering severely from something resembling aggravated neuralgia. We have since learned from a private letter received in town that his [illegible] continues to grow worse.—Oregon [illegible]

DEATH OF A SOUTHERN UNIONIST.—The Hon. Williamson R. W. Cobb of Alabama, recently expelled from the Confederate Congress for disloyalty to the [illegible] Government, is stated to have been accidentally killed in North Alabama by the [illegible].

JACKSONVILLE TO THE MINES.—The Sentinel gives the [illegible] distances from Jacksonville to the mines, via the new road as follows: To Idaho City by Fort Klamath and Owyhee river 55[illegible] miles; to Pacific Mining District 570 miles; to Canyon City by the Rogue river and John Day wagon road 2[illegible]0 miles.

The Oregon Sentinel [illegible] its ninth volume on the 14th and enter [illegible] the new volume with [illegible] prospects. The Sentinel is [illegible] and Union paper and [illegible].

The letter [illegible] recently stolen from Jacksonville Postoffice was found in a gutter near that place broken open and the letters carried away.

Recruiting for the Oregon [illegible] is going on briskly in Jackson county. Last week thirteen recruits were sent to Fort Klamath.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held at the Council Chamber at seven o'clock last evening.

Mayor Failing occupied the Chair.

The following members were present—Councilmen Bennett, Cook, Frazar, Gaston, Gilmore, Hoffman, McCraken, and Starr. Absent—Mr. Robertson.

The records of the previous meeting were read by the Clerk and approved by the Council.

Correspondence between the Mayor and City Attorney, relative to the validity of ordinances, and connected with it the ordinance levying a special tax for the purchase of a dredger, and the ordinance levying a special tax to liquidate the present indebtedness of the city, which were unapproved, lacking the proper specifications to make them legal, were read.

The ordinances were then rejected by the Council, and subsequently others passed for the same purposes, in proper form, under a suspension of the rules.

The proprietor of the Pearl Saloon, in answer to petition, was granted a retail liquor license.

In answer to petition of Lloyd Brooke, a correction in his assessment was authorized.

The committee on ways and means, to whom was referred the petition of J. M. Brooks, asking relief from taxation, reported his assessment at $2,000. Adopted.

The committee on landings and wharves, report ed a deed, executed in favor of the city by Stephen and Lucinda Coffin, for 480 feet of water front between Jefferson and Clay streets. Report adopted and City Clerk authorized to have the deed placed upon record.

An ordinance submitted by the committee on streets and public property, changing grades in B, C and E streets, passed.

An ordinance providing a salary of $100 per annum, for Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, passed the second reading.

The schedule of bills against the city, which have been accumulating for months past, was taken from the table. Warrants were authorized for those recommended by committees, and those contracted by special agreement, and various others certified as being correct by city officers. Others were referred to appropriate committees.

On motion Council adjourned.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The examination at the Portland Academy and Female Seminary was continued on yesterday. The classes examined in the forenoon, were Arithmetic and Geometry; in the afternoon Mental Philosophy, Plain Trigonometry, Moral Science and Paley's Natural Theology. The classes were examined by Professor Frambes and members of the visiting committee, and evinced a thoroughness in the various branches treated of, showing an unusual degree of diligence on the part of the student, and of faithfulness on that of the teacher. The examination will close to-day at noon and the exhibition will take place at the Methodist Episcopal church this evening at seven o'clock—consisting of original orations, declamations, colloquies, essays, vocal and instrumental music. The public are invited to attend. Mr. Frambes informs us that there will be an admittance fee of fifty cents charged at the door, to enable the institution to meet some extra expenses of music, etc.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY RAILROADS.—Messrs. Donahue, Kohl & Ankeny have obtained a charter in the Washington Territorial Legislature, for the above incorporation, which secures them the right to run a railroad around the Cascades portage. Another bill has passed the same body which grants a like privilege to the "Middle Portage Company," headed by Messrs. Parsons and Harris as incorporators. A third bill is pending in the legislature, which grants the privileges for a stupendous enterprise, under the incorporation of the "Puget Sound and Columbia River Railroad," which contemplates running a line from Puget Sound to tap the Central Pacific Railroad above the Great Falls of Snake river, in the heart of the desert at some point we are not definitely informed of. "The Cascades Railroad" bill is also pending. In all of these our capitalists are more or less interested.

THE BELL RINGERS.—This evening, to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow evening, will conclude the entertainments of the Bell Ringers in this city. That they have given entire satisfaction to the public, so far, is admitted, and that they are capable of doing the same everywhere is believed. It is very seldom that a troupe of performers so excellent as these can be found together. The audiences here have learned that whenever one of the company advances to the foot lights an attractive gem of musical composition is sure to follow, executed as near perfection as is generally attained.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In Recorder's Court yesterday A. J. Wyland received a sentence of "committed to jail," in default of a fine of $50 and costs, imposed for appropriating property not his own. Wm. Chancey "happened" to be confused in performing his part of the Act of "Drunk and Disorderly Conduct" so often brought out on the boards of Portland streets), and was reprimanded by an order of the Court to pay a fine of $15 and costs. He "chanced" to short of funds and was committed for six days.

THE TRINITY FESTIVAL.—The festival given on Wednesday evening at Turn Verin Hall, by the members and congregation of Trinity church for the benefit of the Sunday School Library, was well attended, and all whom we have heard converse about it, pronounce themselves well pleased with the entertainment. Many were unable to attend, in consequence of bad weather. It is proposed to repeat the exercises on Tuesday evening of next week. We expect a crowded hall on the occasion.

FOR $100.—Among the many attractive things at the late Fair for the Christian Commission, was a Mantle of surpassing elegance, which took the prize at the World's Fair in New York, and which was donated here by an Oregon lady, through Rev. Mr. Mingins. The ladies wish us to state that anyone wishing to purchase it can now do so, for the sum of $100. It can be seen at the residence of Captain Ainsworth.

A GOLD BEARING DUCK.—On Wednesday last Mr. M. M. Southworth, living a short distance below this city, shot a duck on Tiles Lake, in the crop of which particles of flake gold were found amounting to about ten cents. The circumstance has attracted considerable attention, and it must be universally admitted that it was a queer place to find gold. The duck was a pretty "fat" one, and has undoubtedly been a "grabber" in some rich auriferous region.

A FINE FREIGHT "TURN OUT."—Our attention was directed to a team of eight fine mules drawing a large 60-hundred freight wagon into the city yesterday, under direction of Mr. Carr, as wagonmaster. We were informed that the establishment belongs to the New York and Idaho Gold and Silver Mining Company, and would be used in the transportation of the Company's machinery to South Boise.

THE STEAMER CASCADE.—This fine new steamer owned by Messrs. Donahue, Kohl & Ankeny, has received her final finish, and will make the trial trip on Monday next. We have before alluded to her size, and style of construction, and as we predicted there is no finer fresh water craft on the northern coast. After the 1st of February she will take her place in our trade for service.

MISS LESTER.—The patriotic Editress of the Pacific Monthly, Miss Lisle Lester, leaves by the steamer John H. Couch this morning for Astoria. She will visit Monticello on her return, if found convenient, and give a series of Dramatic Readings at that place. We can commend the lady to the favorable attention of the public.

STOCK FOR VICTORIA.—There is a large amount of live stock, cattle and sheep, being shipped to Victoria lately, from this city via the Cowlitz river. Capt. Olson will take by the steamer Besson to-day 330 head sheep, 30 head of cattle, and 5 horses.

HAULED OUT.—The propeller Otilio was hauled out at Clinton's ship yard yesterday, for repairs.

MILITIA OFFICERS.—At a meeting of company A, held at their armory, January 11th, 1865, J. T. Wolfe was elected Captain, F. S. Hoskins, 1st Lieutenant and R. S. Williams, 2d Lieutenant, S. M. Barr, Orderly Sergeant.

THE PACIFIC.—Capt. VanBargen, of the John H. Couch, states that the steamship Pacific had hoisted anchor before he left Astoria, and would put to sea on Tuesday morning.

CHEAP ENOUGH.—Upon the floor of the north door of the establishment of A. D. Shelby will be found an elegant assortment of Philadelphia heavy grain leather boots, suitable for the season, at three dollars per pair, for five days only.

V. S. Rolls found a nugget in his claim, near Willow Springs, Jackson County, week before last, which weighed twenty-three ounces and is valued at $379 50.

MODERN IMPROVEMENTS.—If we purchase a house to live in, we are sure to want all the modern improvements, and, in a descending scale, in all our purchases we want the same. This fact applies with peculiar force to that important accessory to a household of the present day—a sewing machine. When our fair readers purchase one of these they want one, of course, with the "modern improvements"—they want to embroider as well as sew with the machine, for they never would be satisfied to make their dresses on the machine, and then slowly put on the embroidery by hand; nor need they, for with Grover & Baker's celebrated machine they can do both, and with an ease and rapidity astonishing to behold. J. W. J. Pierson, sole agent for this city.

Dangers of Neglect.—A fearful responsibility rests upon those charged with the care of children. A careless neglect in the timely use of a well-known, safe and certain remedy for that most common and dangerous complaint called Croup, should subject the party to the severest censure, when it is well known that a bottle of NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP would have warded off the attack. Mothers and nurses, KEEP IT BY YOUR BEDSIDE, and use it without fear, upon the first symptom, and with a CERTAINTY of immediate relief! For sale by all Druggists.

When we consider the number of human beings that die with Consumption every year, the importance of a medicine that will cure all Pulmonary affections that lead to this complaint, and even to arrest the destroyer after it has indicated its presence in the system, must be admitted to be beyond all estimate. This wonderful power is claimed to be possessed by ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, bilious cholic, wind cholic, spasms of the stomach, sick or nervous headache, chills and fever, tremens, prostration and all the complaints special to the tender sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by thousands who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. nov1d&w

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, low vitality, should give this great Blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct19d3m

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a "Cough or Slight Cold" in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

LE DOYEN'S
SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE
CONSTITUTION.
CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of
SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and gravel of the Kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate glands, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, restores and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

[illegible] digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the [illegible] of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every [illegible] nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down [illegible] shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy stimulant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of Ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

NEWELL'S

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that rented the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it is to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

A Refugee's Story.—J. A. Stewart, a refugee from Richmond (Virginia), has [illegible] Chattanooga [illegible] the following [illegible]

Rebellion [illegible] only mischief [illegible] the Government of the United States [illegible] In the second place [illegible] Government [illegible]

[illegible] the South in which [illegible] Hamlet [illegible] apply the [illegible] only the [illegible] meet the eye of the Federal troops [illegible] incarnate they are now carrying out their fiendish purpose.

They are persisting in rebellion without a shadow of a chance of success and the [illegible] the South is becoming depopulated. Peaceable citizens are compelled to leave their once happy homes and seek protection and subsistence beyond the turmoil of war [illegible] out of the reach of marauding bands of [illegible] and guerillas who [illegible] murder innocent citizens in cold blood and claim protection under the Jeff Davis Government.

I am a refugee and I know how to sympathize with the poor unfortunate people I see here without a home they can call their own [illegible] and without any money [illegible] But I have no doubt they have resolved, like myself, to sacrifice all this world [illegible] and even life itself rather than again become subject to the merciless despotism and savage cruelty of Jeff Davis.

I was a supporter of Douglas in 1860—and a Douglas man yet—am willing to support the Lincoln measures whether I like them or not. Rebellion must be put down at all hazards. If it requires the destruction of slavery, let slavery go. Like Lincoln, I would save the Union with slavery if I could. I would save it without slavery. The Union and the Constitution must be preserved.

Visit of British Officers to Gen. Grant's Army.—Two British officers, who served with high distinction in the Crimean war, one of them now commanding a regiment at Quebec, having lately returned from a visit to our armies before Richmond, have given most satisfactory reports of their observations. They speak of their visit to our armies as the most instructive in their military experience. The works of defense and attack are regarded as constructions of the highest science and are equal to any in the world. These officers were astonished at the achievements of such vast and perfect military organizations by a people who, four years ago, knew nothing of war. The morale of the army, as compared with that of European armies, was a matter of admiration. In those armies, when in the field, the camp followers are more numerous than soldiers, and drunkenness among the soldiers was an evil which no precaution can prevent. They remarked that they saw not a soldier under the influence of liquor, or a place where liquor could be obtained. They conversed with the private soldiers, and found them not, like European soldiers, mere automatons, but intelligent as to the policy and [illegible] of the war. They were peculiarly impressed by the high tone of the officers, whom they regarded as comparing most favorably in intelligence, culture and courteousness of manners, with those of the best European armies.—New York Tribune of November 29th.

Thus the Marion (Va.) Herald, an organ of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in an article on Jeff Davis' fasting and prayer proclamation, holds this significant language:

"We hope the day will be observed, and that there will be fastings, prayers, intercessions and giving of thanks for all men, and especially for those that are in authority, that we may lead a peaceable and quiet life in all godliness and honesty. The national heart should agonize for peace. We believe the people are heartily tired of the war, and would terminate it at once if they knew how to do it honorably. Our rulers, or rather servants, no doubt partake of the same feeling. But we lack the necessary wisdom. We desire peace, but we know not how to obtain it. Let us pray God to enlighten the minds of rulers and people of both sections, that they may see eye to eye upon the great questions of right, and may be able to come to terms consistent with the rights of all and with the glory of God."

Connecticut Yankees.—Wilkes' Spirit of the Times remarks:

One of the most singular facts connected with the present political condition of the North and South is that Jeff Davis and Alexander H. Stephens, the bogus President and Vice President of the so-called Southern Confederacy, are, as we are credibly informed, native born Connecticut Yankees; while Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson are both natives of the slave States and of the down-trodden class of poor population, which is denominated by the aristocratic planter as the "white trash of the South." Mr. Stephens, we are told, was born at Haddam, in Connecticut, and went to Georgia at an early age. Mr. Davis was born at Killingworth, Connecticut, and emigrated to Kentucky, where his father for some time kept a roadside tavern. And these are the king pins of the Southern aristocracy who pretend to hold their noses when the repudiated Yankees pass between the wind and their nobility.

Vandalism at the White House.—People who visit the White House usually have a free range over the East Room and one or two of the adjoining parlors; accordingly relic-hunters (let us hope they are no worse) have acquired the practice of cutting out and carrying off bits of rich carpet, damask hangings and even large pieces of fringe, cords, tassels, gilt scroll-work and the covering of damask sofas. A few weeks ago an officer was caught in company with two ladies, who had his penknife and were cutting out a square of red brocade from one of the East Room chairs while he stood guard. The ladies were let off and the officer was sent to the Old Capitol. Yesterday, a man in the garb of a private soldier was caught while skinning off the damask cover of a sofa. He was sent to the guard house. Well might an astonished Dutchman say: "Mine Gott, what a peoples!"

Revolutionary Ferment in Russia.—Russia is said to be just now in a state of general fermentation. Revolutionary societies are being organized in all directions, and the terribly numerous acts of incendiarism that have recently been committed are shown to be manifestations of the disaffection of the people towards their masters. Whole towns and villages have been burnt, and in one place barrels of gunpowder were placed by the conspirators under all the public buildings of the town. At another town, [illegible] Russians, said to belong to a revolutionary society, were seized in the act of setting fire to a building, and thrown by the crowd into the flames they had themselves lighted. If all or even only a part of what has been told is to be credited, the internal state of Russia must be extremely critical, though the cause of the present condition of things is at present enveloped in mystery.

[illegible] Fight.—An elephant and bull fight took place lately [illegible] The elephant [illegible] the first bull [illegible] with all his might. The elephant [illegible] with great [illegible] the [illegible] two more attacks [illegible] him with a thrust [illegible] several ears [illegible] then released [illegible] same fate as the first.

Ordinance No

AN ORDINANCE to impose and regulate licenses in the City of Portland.

The People of the City of Portland do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. That every person [illegible] shall [illegible] the City of Portland [illegible] hereafter [illegible] shall [illegible] as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. That every person [illegible] with the City [illegible]

Sec. 3. That if any person shall exercise or carry on any trade [illegible] profession [illegible] for which a license is required by this ordinance, without taking out the same [illegible] shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall [illegible] for every such offence [illegible] shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars [illegible] of such fine to the use of the city of Portland [illegible] first gave information of the fact whereby said fine was incurred.

Sec. 4. That every license [illegible] shall be [illegible] set forth the purpose, trade, business [illegible] and the name and place of business [illegible] taking out the same [illegible] whether authorized to drive [illegible] with one or two or more animals [illegible] license is to run and the date of time of granting such license. And every person exercising or carrying on any trade, business [illegible] for which a license is required shall on demand of any city officer produce such license, and unless he shall do so, shall be deemed to have no license. And in case any peddler shall refuse to produce his or her license when demanded by any city officer, [illegible] may seize the animals, wagon and contents of pack, bundle or basket of any person so refusing, and hold the same until the license is produced.

Sec. 5. That in every case where more than one of the pursuits, employments or occupations hereinafter described shall be pursued or carried on in the same place by the same person at the same time, a license must be taken out for each, according to the rate severally prescribed.

Sec. 6. That no auctioneer shall be authorized by virtue of his license as such auctioneer to employ any other person to act as auctioneer in his behalf, except in his own store or warehouse, or in his presence. The provisions of this section shall not apply to judicial or executive officers making auction sales by virtue of any judgment or decree of any court, nor public sale made by executors and administrators.

Sec. 7. All licenses issued as quarterly licenses shall expire the last day of each quarter, viz: Thirty first (31) of March, thirtieth (30) of June, thirtieth (30) of September, and thirty first of December; and all quarterly licenses shall be dated from the first day of the month in which the liability therefor accrued, and shall be issued upon the payment of a ratable proportion of the whole amount of duty imposed for such license.

Sec. 8. All licenses required by this ordinance shall be paid in advance in gold or silver coin.

Sec. 9. That from and after the first day of January, 1865, there shall be paid at such times as hereinafter provided, for each license granted the sum herein stated, respectively:

1st. Auctioneers who follow their vocation in the day time only, shall pay a quarterly license of fifty (10) dollars. Auctioneers who follow their vocation both day and night, or in the night only, shall pay a quarterly license of seventy five (75) dollars. Every person shall be deemed an auctioneer within the meaning of this ordinance, whose business it is to offer property for sale to the highest or best bidder.

2d. Every person keeping a Bar Room or drinking shop, shall pay a quarterly license of fifty (50) dollars. Every person who keeps malt or spirituous liquors or wines for sale at retail in less quantities than one quart, either as his sole business or in connection with some other occupation, shall be deemed a keeper of a bar room or drinking shop under this ordinance.

3d. Hotels, Inns and Taverns shall be classified and rated according to the monthly rental, or if not rented, according to the estimated monthly rental of the house and property intended to be occupied for said purposes, as follows, to-wit: All cases where the rent or valuation of the monthly rental of said house and property shall be one hundred dollars or less, shall pay fifteen (15) dollars per quarter. And if exceeding one hundred dollars, for any additional fifty dollars or fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred dollars, ten (10) dollars. Every place where food and lodging are provided for and furnished to travelers and sojourners in view of payment therefor, shall be regarded as a Hotel, Inn or Tavern under this ordinance. The monthly rental shall be fixed and established by the City Assessor, at its proper value, but if rented, at not less than the actual rent agreed on by the Parties. Provided, that if there be any fraud or collusion in the return of actual rent to the Assessor, there shall be a penalty equal to double the amount of license required by this section, to be collected as other penalties under this ordinance are collected.

4th. Peddlers shall be classified and rated as follows, to wit: When traveling with more than two animals, the first class, and shall pay a weekly license of fifteen (15) dollars; when traveling with two animals, the second class, and shall pay a weekly license of twelve (12) dollars; when traveling with one animal, the third class, and shall pay a weekly license of eight (8) dollars; when traveling on foot or by public conveyance, the fourth class, and shall pay a weekly license of five (5) dollars. Any person, except persons peddling newspapers, bibles, religious tracts, farmers from the country peddling the products of their farms, who offer to sell at retail or wholesale goods, wares, merchandise or other commodities, traveling from place to place in the City of Portland, shall be regarded as a peddler under this ordinance.

5th. Bowling alleys, billiard tables and pigeon hole tables shall pay [illegible] according to the number of alleys or tables belonging to or used in the building or place to be licensed, when not exceeding one alley or one table, the keeper of such house shall pay a quarterly license of [illegible] dollars, and when exceeding [illegible] Every place or building where bowls are thrown or billiards played, and open to the public, with or without price, shall be regarded as a bowling alley or billiard room respectively under this ordinance.

6th. Theatres shall pay a quarterly license of fifty (50) dollars, or a license of five (5) dollars per night, at the option of the manager. Every building used wholly or in part for the purpose of [illegible] shall be regarded as a theatre under this ordinance.

7th. The keepers of every circus shall pay a license of [illegible] dollars [illegible]

8th. Jugglers shall pay a license of five (5) dollars [illegible]

[illegible]

9th. Pawnbrokers shall pay a quarterly license of twenty (20) dollars [illegible]

10th. [illegible] shall pay a quarterly license of [illegible] dollars [illegible] shall be deemed a steamboat runner under this ordinance.

11th. Hotel runners shall pay a quarterly license of (10) dollars. All persons who solicit on the public streets of the city of Portland or on the [illegible] the wharf [illegible]

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the City Marshal to prosecute all persons violating the provisions of this ordinance [illegible] shall receive [illegible] (5) dollars [illegible] in the [illegible]

Sec. 11. The City Marshal shall make out a list [illegible] of each quarter [illegible] Marshal a list of all persons who have licenses, or at the close of the quarter, [illegible] not been renewed and of all licenses issued during the quarter.

Sec. 12. Ordinance number 141 and all other ordinances, or parts of ordinances, conflicting with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Passed the Common Council January 19, 1865.

Attest: H. R. Warren, Auditor and Clerk.

Approved January [illegible] 1865.
